National ID: KAB75 | State ID: KAB75

About this course

Create contemporary polymer clay jewellery to take home with you

In this course you will explore a range of polymer clay processes and techniques to create contemporary polymer clay jewellery.

Polymer clay is a sculpting medium which originated in Germany over 50 years ago and can be used in a variety of different ways. The basics of using polymer clay will be covered in this course from conditioning to curing clay. Students will also learn:

- Techniques such as carving, using molds, heat crackle, silkscreening and texture
- Basic jewellery design and stringing options
- Introduction to a variety of art products that work beautifully with polymer clay

Overview

Training at CRTAFE will be offered with a blended, flexible delivery model to enable social distancing measures during the COVID-19 pandemic. This approach may include a combination of online and classroom based delivery, as well as practical and work experience placements. While the mode of delivery may vary, the content and key learning outcomes of the course will remain the same. Lecturers will provide specific instructions to their student groups on how training will be undertaken and the support available to them.

Fees and charges

Find our Indicative Price List here.

At Central Regional TAFE, three types of fees may be charged.

Course Fees

The course fee is determined by multiplying the tuition fee rate by the nominal hours, which is the number of hours in which an average student could be expected to complete each unit.

Resource Fees

Resource fees are charges for materials that are considered essential to a course or unit of study and which do not form part of the course fee. The resource fee covers materials purchased by the College to be consumed or transformed by students in the course of instruction, such as workshop materials, workbooks and essential uniforms.

Other Fees

Other fees may be charged for goods or services that are not essential to the course such as parking, membership to student organisations and security passes.

In addition to these fees students may need to purchase textbooks, uniforms and other course specific equipment.

Your Pre Enrolment Information package will provide additional information if these are required.

Please note, fees are subject to change.
